The Mary's Ark of Salvation Report

The Unprecedented Miracles of Love that Our Lord and Our Lady have performed in Naju where They came and continue Their Presence

Just before Jesus Christ, Our Lord and Savior, died on the Cross, He said to His Mother: "Woman, behold thy son (John)" (John 19:26), and said to John representing all of Jesus' faithful disciples: "Behold thy mother" (John 19:27). Thus, Our Lord made His Mother the true Mother of all of His disciples as well. Throughout Church history, the Blessed Mother, filled with the dignity and love as the Mother and Helper of Jesus Christ, intervened in the flow of human history whenever the Church was faced with extreme threats and crisis, repelled the threats, and gave abundant consolation and grace to her sons and daughters. Now, in our own times, the Blessed Mother, together with Our Lord on the Cross, came to Naju ardently wishing that Their beloved sons and daughters will return to the bosom of the Lord and be saved, pleading with them shedding tears and tears of blood and giving the messages of love and miraculous signs through Julia, a little soul whom She personally chose.

Julia Kim's sufferings for the conversion of sinners

- The left : Julia suffered the intense pains of her mouth and her tongue being burned and the pieces of flesh splitting and falling off in Purgatory for the repentance of those who were judging, slandering, and condemning others with their mouths and tongues and thus were walking to their ruin. (January 5, 2013)
- The middle : Julia was not able to make any sound because her vocal cords were swollen. After her neck was rubbed with the two hands of the Blessed Mother's statue, which was oozing fragrant oil, she began making sounds. (June 2, 2012)
- The right : Julia speaking to the pilgrims graciously offering up her pains caused by her excessively low body temperature. (December 1, 2012) (Normally, people lose their consciousness when their temperature falls to 30 degrees Centigrade. Medically, it has been known that when the body temperature falls below 28 degrees, the patient will not recover. Julia's body temperature on that day was 22.1 degrees, which exceeded our common knowledge.)

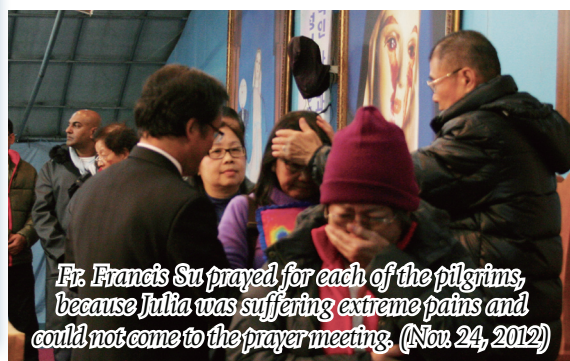

During the prayer meeting on the First Saturday of November 2012, Julia was not able to come out to the prayer meeting. So, many of the pilgrims immediately noticed Julia's extreme suffering and ardently prayed and prayed shedding tears. Soon, Julia came out despite her pains that push her even to the threshold of death and participated in the prayer meeting without losing her consciousness until the end, communicating and praying with the pilgrims. At 3 a.m., she remained lying on a stretcher and prayed for each of the pilgrims holding their hands and spiritually hugging and kissing them.

On November 24, 2012, the 18th anniversary of the miraculous descent of the Eucharist in the Blessed Mother's House during Archbishop Giovanni Bulaitis' visit to Naju, Julia was suffering so severely that she again could not attend the prayer meeting. Instead, she recorded her messages for the pilgrims. The following is an excerpt from Julia's recorded messages.

"Brothers and sisters, I am so anxious to see you. I miss you from the depth of my heart. These sufferings allowed to me are pushing me to the threshold between life and death, but are actually God's Love for the sake of this world. The Holy Father, the Successor of St. Peter, is also suffering so many severe spiritual pains because of those Bishops and priests and the politicians have joined forces with the secular world and are becoming more and more estranged from God. This world is to be destroyed because of the widespread sins which one cannot even look with the open eyes, but the merciful God the Father is still bending His ears to the sounds of your prayers interspersed with your sacrifices and reparations in Naju. This is because God wishes to save even one more soul and to bestow the cup of blessing instead of the cup of wrath on this world. Brothers and sisters who come to Naju as pilgrims are as precious to me as my life! I love you. I love you extremely. I love you with all my life."

In the middle of meeting and praying for each of the pilgrims, Julia was overwhelmed with pains and needed Fr. Francis Su's prayer. (June 12, 2012)

Fr. Francis Su prayed for each of the pilgrims, because Julia was suffering extreme pains and could not come to the prayer meeting. (Nov. 24, 2012)

Excerpts from Fr. Francis Su's homily - Now it's our turn !

My dear brothers and sisters ! Do you still remember what happened to Julia in the year of 2011 on Good Friday?

I can still recall vividly in my mind that Julia stopped breathing on the 12th Station of the Cross on Good Friday, 2011, April 22th. Her soul went up to heaven and approached before God the Father. God the Father wanted her to come back into the world alive to be with us so that she could continue to suffer for us and for the world.

Last First Saturday Julia could not come for the vigil because she was having intensive and severe suffering. At the end of the vigil, I was praying over the people one by one instead of Julia.

I realized that most of them wanted to be healed even of their little, little pains. They all wanted to be hugged and kissed by Julia. I know, some of them even came up to Julia for a second time.

Yes, most of us want to be healed because we do not want to suffer. I tell you, Julia has suffered so much already. How beautiful it would be if each one of us offer up a little bit of our sufferings in union with Jesus' suffering. Through our suffering we can save many, many souls.

If we really offer up our little pains and sufferings in union with Christ's Redemptive suffering they will become a very powerful prayer.

Therefore, don't waste our pains and sufferings but unite with them with those of Julia's severe and intensive suffering together with Christ's Redemptive suffering for the conversion of sinners and sanctification of our Bishops and priests in the world.

Julia has suffered enough already! It's now our turn to suffer a little bit. If you have a little headache, or little pains or ache in your body, do not complain but "Praise the Lord" and say "Lord! I offer it up for the sanctification of souls and the Sanctification of all the clergy in the world."

Through offering up our little pains and sufferings willingly, we will become Saints one day, we are in heaven we will be praying for you. Amen.

We are now in the year of 2013. Prayers can change things and will change the lives of people. Let us pray harder and make more sacrifices in union with Julia's sufferings.

I told Julia "I can't do anything, I just pray for you and offer masses for you." And I always encourage her "Through your pains and sufferings many souls are converted, especially my own soul!" And many clergy will be sanctified.

And I ask you "Do you want to see more souls to be saved? Do you want to see more Holy priests in Korea here? Yes, or No?"

(Pilgrims responded "Yes".) Louder! "YES!" If you continue to preserve, I'm sure many Korean priests and priests over the world will be sanctified. They will become holy priests.

I remember in 2011 on 22nd of April, Good Friday, Julia collapsed and her souls went up to heaven. God the Father Said "I will give you another chance, you go back and you cry out to the world! "So now, I'm telling you "Go, and cry out to the world the messages of Love of Jesus and Mother Mary!"

Do not be afraid! Be courageous, be strong in the Lord! In the end, the Immaculate Heart of Mary will triumph and the Sacred Heart of Jesus will reign eternally. And I wish you all a very holy and blessed new year, 2013. Thank you and God bless you.

Fr. Francis Su

It is difficult to enter the Heavenly Kingdom if we only calculate in human ways

Praise Jesus! Praise the Blessed Mother!

Today is the day of forgiving each other and reconciling with each other. In the beginning, the serpent tempted Eve saying that, if she ate the prohibited fruit, her eyes would be opened as God. Eve ate the fruit first and gave one to Adam to eat. Their eyes were not opened as God but they realized that they were naked and felt ashamed. When God asked Adam why he ate the prohibited fruit, he answered, "I ate it because the woman, whom You gave me to be my companion, gave me the fruit and told me to eat it."

As such things occur so frequently in our daily lives, we should listen to the above conversation very attentively. What Adam said was not incorrect, but, when we make mistakes, it is important that we promptly admit our mistakes, make a resolution not to do so again, and make efforts to keep the resolution. This is because it will be difficult for us to enter the Heavenly Kingdom if we try to be clever, calculate, and weigh (the advantages and the disadvantages to us).

In 1982, I attended the ceremony of Baptism for my mother-in-law. After the ceremony, I was almost dragged to a house where many people gathered. One of the ladies, who was the owner of the house, smiled and said that they were naturally expecting that I would come to her house after my mother-in-law's Baptism and asked the two ladies to take me to her house. I realized that the two ladies who were pulling me from the front and pushing me in the back were those who had experienced miracles of love that Jesus had performed through me despite my unworthiness for their sake.

So, I entered the house saying to myself, "Yes, I will accept this as the Lord's Will." A lady about 60 years old, however, saw me and said, "Shoot! I am leaving," with her face filled with hatred and anger. I promptly began praying in my heart, softly holding the hem of the lady's skirt, "Jesus, the heart of this lady is now completely closed. Please unbar and open the gate. We cannot do it, but You can." Soon, her eyes became a little softened and she sat in the sofa. I again promptly went to her and began praying holding her skirt. Then, she said she would leave after praying and entered a room.

Accept every problem as my own fault

Let us abandon our useless stubbornness and self-indulgence, accept every problem as my own fault, and, thus, become littler and lower souls.

In such cases, I first soften the person's tense and rough heart, plant seeds, and then pray. That day, my talk was focused on a sick family and then I spoke about my experiences with the Lord and about the love of neighbors. Everyone present there accepted it well and later began crying loudly.

One of the two ladies who forced me to come to this house had attended 7-week charismatic seminars six times and received the graces of spiritual prayers, prophecies, and healing, but she continued feeling that her heart was empty and her hatred of others remained. She wanted to attend another charismatic seminar with my help. She participated in her seventh seminar with me.

While she was still a virgin, she was sexually abused by a disabled man (who could not use one of his arms), married him, and gave birth to two children. She continued to resent and lament that she met this kind of man and had to live with him. She was well-educated, but her husband was not. She was never happy, because she always had the hatred of her husband. She also frequently used abusive languages to the eldest son and beat him, even though he was not responsible for the problem. Because of her hatred of her husband and son, she always despised them and did not stay much at home.

I asked the lady, "Sister, you say that your husband was disabled and had pains all over his body. Then, why can you say that you have been sexually abused 100% by him? How could you be abused like that by a disabled person, even if you were in a defenseless situation? Is it not more true that you, too, were fallen into temptation and, later, felt that you were abused by a man unworthy of you?" I continued, "You have no right to hate your child, either. You are the one who was not sufficiently proper in your behavior and why are you beating your child who is innocent?" The lady began repenting saying, "I was crazy, I was crazy!"

When I told her about the spirituality of "blaming myself only", she began crying loudly and accepted my words well. I encouraged her to make a general confession. The next day, she did make a general confession and brought me a thick envelope containing the papers of records of all the bad things she had done since her childhood and burned the envelope asking me to pray that her family could become a holy family and lead a life of resurrection. Then, one more day later, she came with her husband and two sons. After I heard the husband's story about the boundless love of the Lord that is so high and deep, I could not help weeping.

"How can I refuse such a wish of yours?"

"When we came home, my wife suddenly laid the mattress. I asked, 'What are you doing in broad daylight? What's the matter with you?'" His wife asked both her husband and the first son to sit on the mattress and made a big bow to them four times and said, "Until now I have so hated and despised you (her husband) and beat you (the son) up. I am very, very sorry. Can you forgive me?" The three persons embraced one another and wept so much. They felt the love and happiness in the family for the first time.

I also embraced them who were beginning to live the life of resurrection and cried forcefully. At that moment, I heard the voice of the Lord: "Today again you ardently wished with your heart, filled with sacrifice and true love, that the woman's sharp swords of selfishness, anger, and contempt be changed into love that is like fine soft hair. How can I refuse such a wish of yours? Your ardent, loving, and tear-stained wish became a welcome rain to their souls and enlivened them."

The other lady who forcefully took me to this house had also been a victim of sexual abuse. After she became pregnant, she reluctantly married the man who abused her. The baby girl grew and is now a high-school student, but her mother continued to feel the urge to shoot her daughter if she had a gun and to kill her with a sword if she had one. I asked the lady, "Has your husband been unfaithful to you or turning his eyes to other women?" She answered, "No. He only looks at me and has been very nice to me, but, because I remember the terrible things of the past, I have not been able to forgive him or love our daughter. I have only lived in resentment and hatred."

"But why are you not also acknowledging that it was your fault?"

I said, "Sister! The way that your husband did it was not good, but he did it because he wanted to live with you. Please forgive him now. Sister, your heart has been filled with hatred and abhorrence for a long time. How difficult it must have been for you?" I continued, "But why are you not also acknowledging that it was your fault? How about making a new start from now?" and prayed with her. She accepted my words and began crying loudly. Brothers and sisters! Feeling is important and accepting it is also important. Without hesitation, this sister asked her husband for forgiveness and restored the love that had been absent. They became a happy and holy family.

When my testimony and prayer were finished in that house, the lady, who had been filled with hatred and anger, had a face totally wet with tears and nose drippings and said, "Sister, may I speak for a while?" She said that one of her sons was a priest and her eldest son was married and live in the USA. She hated her daughter-in-law so intensely that she tried all kinds of methods to make them divorce. In the end, she began to telephone the parents of her daughter-in-law again and again, quarrel with them, and blame them.

In the past she attended charismatic seminars and other places, but her anger, violent emotions, and inability to forgive others continued. But after she heard my advices and prayed with me, she thought that she found the truth and acknowledged all the past problems as caused by her own mistakes. Thus, she asked for forgiveness from her in-laws and her daughter-in-law and accomplished a full reconciliation.

Brothers and sisters, please put your hands on your chest and try to remember those times when you failed to think of your problems as the fruits of your own mistakes, and then ask for forgiveness from others before they ask you, and thus accomplish reconciliation.

Today the Lord and the Blessed Mother bestowed on you much love. If you can feel it, it will become your true reality. How to feel is very important. Feel the love from the Lord and the Blessed Mother and respond with "Amen". Your soul that had been lifeless will become alive again. If you widely open your heart and accept the Lord and the Blessed Mother, They will dwell in you and start a fire of love in you. (A Summary of Julia Kim's Testimony on April 6, 2012, Good Friday)

Translator's note: When Julia fell and lost consciousness at the Twelfth Station on the Way of the Cross on the Blessed Mother's Mountain on April 22, 2011, Fr. Lawrence Joun and Sister Maria confirmed that Julia was not breathing and did not have any pulse. A while later, God the Father restored her life.

Go out and cry out without delay

The Messages from God the Father to Julia Kim in Naju, Korea on April 22, 2012, Good Friday

At the Twelfth Station, all the energy in my body drained away and I intuitively felt that I was dying and prayed: "Father, receive my soul. Through my death, grant that Naju will be approved as soon as possible and let the children in the whole world be saved. Especially, I offer up myself for the sanctification of the Holy Father and all of the clergy in this world." Then, I lost consciousness. At that moment, I saw brilliant light radiating and faintly heard some music as if from a military band. In a moment, I realized that I was standing before God the Father.

God the Father: "Child! How are you able to suffer the pain even laying down your life and not refusing the cup of such severe suffering?"

Julia: "This lowly sinner only did what I was supposed to do."

God the Father: "Baby! I wish to send down the chastisement on this world filled with sins, but I cannot strike with my hand of justice lifted high because there is a little soul like you who so generously laid down even your life."

Julia: "Father! I fall so short of what I am supposed to do. It is my wish that the clergy fulfill their duties as the Lord's ministers and lead the herds of sheep, which have lost their ways and are wandering, to the correct way and, thus, the whole world repent."

God the Father: "Well, in that case, return to the world and cry out. If there were no soul like you in the world who is totally loyal and render completely devoted service to Me, the world filled with pitch-black darkness would be reduced to ashes. Therefore, I will give you one more chance. Go out and cry out without delay."

Then, I saw God the Father breathe into me and give a blessing stretching His hands toward the world. At that moment I regained consciousness and saw the black curtain in the sky being lifted and brilliant light radiating down like the sunlight on those who were praying and on the entire Blessed Mother's Mountain.

Turning our lives into prayers

We turn everything, not ignoring even the most trivial and unimportant-looking matter in our daily life, into a prayer. When Brushing my teeth "Lord, Now I am brushing my teeth, remove the bad odor from our souls and help us keep our souls clean. Amen."

"As the events in Naju are considered private revelations, the penalties mentioned in your Decree cannot be applied to those who visit Naju. The penalties on Fr. Aloysius Chang should also be lifted. Fr. Chang can continue celebrating Mass." according to the Congregation for the Evangelization of Peoples (March, 2008)

The information about the Eucharistic Miracle through Julia Kim is spreading all over Italy

The first Eucharistic Miracle in the Vatican (The Eucharist turned into visible Flesh and Blood on Julia's tongue on October 31, 1995.)

In St. Michael Church located in the vicinity of San Giovanni Rotondo near the eastern coast of Italy, which is the shrine in honor of St. Padre Pio, photographs and explanations of the Eucharistic miracles that had been officially approved by the Church are being displayed. From 2001, the photographs and explanations of the Eucharistic miracle involving the change of the species of the Eucharist into visible Flesh and Blood that Julia received from Pope John Paul II during a morning Mass in his chapel in the Vatican on October 31, 1995 have also been displayed in the same church. As this miracle directly involved the Pope, the public display of the information about it would not have been possible without the permission by the Holy See. In other words, the information about this Eucharistic miracle through Julia is being publicly displayed in Italy with the permission of the Holy See.

The second Eucharistic Miracle in the Vatican (February 28, 2010)

Archbishop Giovanni Bulaitis, the former Papal Nuncio to Korea, emphasized repeatedly about the Eucharistic miracle that had occurred during the Mass which he had celebrated, "As this Eucharistic miracle occurred in a building officially under the jurisdiction of the Holy See, the authority to discern this miracle belongs exclusively to the Holy Father and the Holy See. Anyone else in the world including the Gwangju Archdiocese has no power to interfere in this matter."

The miraculously bled Eucharist that was presented to the Holy Father (Benedict XVI) according to the instruction in the messages from Jesus (March 2010)

It was October 16, 2006, at about 9 a.m. Julia received a message from Jesus: "Take Me, Who am alive and breathing in the Eucharist and show My Love by bleeding (from the Eucharist), to the Pope chosen as the First Son of the Church, the Successor of Peter, and My Vicar." Immediately Julia went to the living room and, as soon as she opened the ciborium, she saw the amazing scene of the Precious Blood exuding from the Eucharist. "The Eucharist that Jesus wished to be presented to the Pope" was safely brought to the Holy Father. The Holy Father carefully examined the Eucharist and asked the Cardinal who brought the Eucharist to preserve the Eucharist most respectfully and carefully.

Testimonies on October 19, 2011

I am so happy today to be at this prayer meeting with you. I also give a special Thank You to Mrs. Julia Kim. I heard a lot about Mrs. Julia Kim's suffering for all other people.

Today I personally witnessed it. As a result, from today, I think I can follow Jesus anew, Who is suffering pains for the salvation of all His children in the world.

*Fr. Kristianus,
Sancti family missionary in Semarang, Indonesia*

I am 78 years old. I received a heart surgery a long time ago, but continued to have difficulty in breathing when I was physical active. Recently, when I was doing some work, I experienced a severe difficulty in breathing much worse than before. I did not think it would be of much help to go to the hospital, and, as it was an urgent crisis, I began praying holding the rosary from Naju in my hands and drank the water from the Blessed Mother's Spring in Naju.

Only 5 minutes later, the pain from the inability to breathe normally was gone and I could breathe well. I have not had any breathing problems since then — not even once. I am making efforts to make the miraculous water of Naju known.

Mr. Rock Paul, Paris, France

The grace of healing that God granted in response to Julia's ardent prayer

Elena from Indonesia had difficulty with her legs. After she personally met Julia, she was healed and was able to walk. Julia said: "Didn't I tell you that tears are important? Yesterday, when she and I were meeting each other, she cried while being tightly embraced in my bosom. She cried so much that her nose became red. I have never seen a nose redder than hers. She was healed."

- 1) Elise from Kenya received a healing of her spinal disease after personally meeting with Julia.
- 2) Margaret from Kenya was healed of her neuralgia and cataract after Julia's prayer.
- 3) Theresa from Malaysia was joyful after being healed of her knee disease.
- 4) James from Malaysia was healed of his mental depression.
- 5) Ursula from Australia drank the miraculous water from the Blessed Mother's spring in Naju and her dead nerve cells became alive again.

Palm Sunday (April 1, 2012)

During the Palm Sunday Mass (April 1, 2012), while meditating on the extreme pains that Jesus and the Blessed Mother were suffering, I also suffered participating in Their pains. In this age, even some of those who are working to make Jesus and the Blessed Mother known to others and have been known to be very close to Them are recklessly brandishing the swords of betrayal against Jesus and the Blessed Mother.

The Blessed Mother was shedding not only tears but also tears of blood and asked me if I could suffer more pains for the repentance and sanctification of the clergy. I answered that I would gladly suffer more pains.

During the same Mass, I fell down forcefully. The Blessed Mother showed me the current condition of the world and said, "If the clergy and religious do not wake up, (a terrible event) will occur that will make the whole world shake with fear." I hope that the sounds of your prayers will soar to heaven and things that would make us tremble with fear will not occur. (An Excerpt from Julia Kim's Testimony on Holy Thursday in 2012)

Holy Thursday (April 5, 2012)

On Holy Thursday, the Blessed Mother was exuding fragrant oil by squeezing her whole body

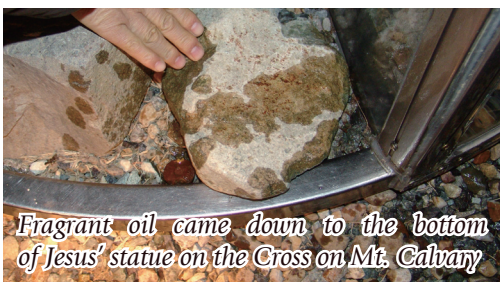

The Blessed Mother's golden-color fragrant oil flowed down to her feet.

The Blessed Mother's golden-color fragrant oil made the cloth under her statue very wet.

The golden-color fragrant oil flowed down from Julia's head to her face.

Fragrant oil came down to the bottom of Jesus' statue on the Cross on Mt. Calvary

The scarf around Julia's neck became very wet with fragrant oil

The golden-color fragrant oil gushed out of her head even making a sound and continuously flowed down.

"What is the Last Supper? It is a feast of love and sharing. In order to give the totality of my love, which is so high, deep and wide, to my beloved Pope, Cardinals, Bishops, priests, religious and all my children in the world together with my Son Jesus, I am squeezing all of myself and giving you fragrance and oil. The fragrance and oil that I give to all are gifts from God. They represent my presence, love and friendship for you." (Message of love from the Blessed Mother on April 8, 1993)

Good Friday (April 6, 2012)

It was the severest pain from the crown of thorns and the cruelest pain from scourging ever, even though there were no visible wounds the left, the middle : Julia Kim falling down on the ground at the 11th Station because of the overwhelming pain from scourging

the right : Julia's head between her two hands because of the intense pain from the crown of thorns at the 12th Station

At the 12th Station, Julia suddenly screamed loudly and her body was lifted up and then fell on the ground. The pain from scourging was so severe that she did not seem to feel the pain from the crown of thorns. She could not move herself at all.

While Julia Kim was praying the rosary on Good Friday, the devil attacked her to kill her and make it look like an accident of colliding with a rock, but the Blessed Mother came and rescued her.

The Mary's Ark of Salvation Prayer of Life Group

The Mary's Ark of Salvation Prayer of Life Group is a preparative mechanism before formally establishing the Mary's Ark of Salvation Religious Order. The applicants are young, unmarried men and women who aspire to lead a life devoted to daily prayers and activities especially of the lay persons' apostolate, based on the spirituality taught by Julia Kim according to the messages and instructions by the Lord and the Blessed Mother Who came to Naju and are present there. Julia Kim is the spiritual mother to the members and, currently, three priests and two Sisters are guiding and teaching ten male members and 18 female members. They are making their best efforts to carry out the role of the grain of wheat that falls into the ground and dies through their prayers and apostolic efforts to help the pilgrims to the Blessed Mother's House and the Blessed Mother's Mountain so that they may receive more grace.

My enemy, Satan, even mobilizes the numerous church leaders to shun the Lord and me, who are unfolding the economy of love, as heretical, but because you, whom I have prepared and nurtured for the Order of Mary's Ark of Salvation, have responded with Amen, you will be doing your share of the work of saving the world. That you have responded with Amen to the invitation together with my little soul who has been called to a great role, which this pure Mommy has prepared with my utmost effort, and responded with Amen means that you have been called as her helpers for the purpose of strengthening the foundation stones for the great role. Also, that you have been called as her helpers means that you have been called as my helpers." (Message of love from the Blessed Mother on August 2, 2008)

The House of Love for “the little Jesus and the little Blessed Mother”

Julia Kim grew up in extremely poverty and other difficult circumstances, but has always been eager to help those who are poor, handicapped, powerless, and miserable. Especially, the elderly who are poor or sick but have no one to rely on have been coming to her. To help them, Julia started and is keeping up, “The House of Love” where the helpless elderly can stay and be taken care of indefinitely.

The House of Love is located at Shingwang-Ri, Dashi-Myun in Naju City.

Testimonies by Clergy (2012)

Bishop Su's third visit since 1995

His Excellency Bishop Dominic Su of Sibu, Malaysia visited Naju again to celebrate the 26th anniversary (October 19, 2012) of the Blessed Mother's first shedding tears of blood in Naju. Bishop Dominic Su had personally witnessed a Eucharistic miracle of the Sacred Host changing into the visible and live Flesh and Blood on Julia's tongue during the Mass in the Sacred Heart of Jesus Cathedral in Sibu on September 17, 1996.

Bishop Dominic Su, Sibu diocese, Malaysia

Throughout the history of human salvation, when the world was so filled with sins that He had to send down punishment, God sent a prophet to the world for their repentance and reparation.

When people accepted the words of the prophet as the true warning from God, God withdrew the punishment and sent down blessing instead. Now, in our time, God is sending us the Mother of Jesus, Mary, as the last Prophetess for the world.

To accomplish her mission, the Blessed Mother came to Naju and, through Julia Kim, is imploring us to repent our sins and return to God. She also asks us to pray for the conversion of other sinners. I am very impressed by the way the pilgrims pray, make the Way of the Cross, attend the Mass, keep the night vigil, etc.

The dedication of about 80 volunteer workers in Naju is so wonderful. They live a prayerful and simple life, like the early Christian communities described in Acts 4. Let us pray that they will persevere in faithfully responding to the call of our Blessed Mother to pray and do penance for peace in the world and conversion of sinners. They also pray for the Holy Father and for the sanctification of the clergy.

Glory and praise to God forever and ever! (Oct. 19, 2012)

A great blessing of renewal of my priesthood and religious life!

Glory to the Lord and praise to Our Lady especially for a request granted during my previous first visit to Naju and at the same time for the spirit-filled pilgrimage. Now on this second visit, I received a great blessing of renewal of my priesthood and religious life. Thank you very much and may God bless all of you who are offering up your life to Our Blessed Mother.

This phenomenon is surely the work of God and the Blessed mother

I am Fr. Augustine Tay. This is my first visit to Naju. The person of Julia Kim exudes very strong fragrance of roses; any article she touched also gives out rose fragrance. I saw a lot of sincere devout people here. If the world is filled with people like them, there will be peace. Many prayers are being offered. Such religiosity and piety cannot be from the evil one. What is being promoted in Naju is good for the salvation of many souls. This phenomenon is surely the work of God and the Blessed Mother.

I only applied Naju water. That's it!

I am very proud of you. This is the faith in the very real sense. Even in the middle of the night, we still pray. What is this? This is a very good sign! This is the faith to which we are all invited.

So now let me share this with you. I got a problem with my eyes, especially the right eye. I read many books all the time. One day, something was floating in my eyes. So I went to Singapore to check my eyes. What the doctor said, I still remember, "You have to live with it" no cure.

I said "OK, If I die, no problem with me. I can see my Lord. I can live with it" After checking my eyes, Agnes, Regina and Elizabeth here brought me to their House. Their mother gave me 2 or 3 small bottles of the water of Naju. I received the bottles and then I prayed and blessed and applied the water into my eyes.

I said like this, "Mama Mary, help me, but if you don't help me, I still love you too" and I again applied it later on, I went back to Singapore for checking it again. The doctor said, "Look at the picture! That's all right. No problem!" I only applied the Naju water. That's it! 'Oh, Mama Mary, I know now, you still love me. I will love you more and more. But don't take me wrong. even if I applied that water of Naju to my eyes and it did not work, no problem with me, I still love Mama Mary, and I will strive to come here.'

If Mama Mary helps me, I am very grateful and thank her, thank the Lord. If I have to suffer, then let it be. I will offer this suffering of mine for the sake of others. Now I can see you all and see how beautiful all of you are.

Just excommunicated, we are still alive!

Before I came here, a friend of mine reminded me: "Be careful! You will be excommunicated." I will tell you what I said, "There are many martyrs being killed, murdered because of Our Lord. Just excommunicated, we are still alive." So what? This excommunication does not make any sense to me. So here I am.

Remember, Naju is the message from the Lord and the Blessed Mother through Julia

The important thing is this. What next after Naju? Remember. Naju is the message from Lord and Mama Mary through mama Julia and now for all of us. I prayed Mama Mary to convert the whole world, how come? We are just too little ones to convert the whole world. Then Mama Mary said in me. "If you convert one person, it's enough." So, for all of us, just get one person to come back to the Lord, That's enough. Perhaps if it is too much to get one, then I would say, get yourself. Then Our Lady will be very happy. Thank you all very much and I love you all.

"My beloved priests!

When you spread my messages of love which I give you shedding tears and tears of blood, you will experience pains, too. But I will elevate you, who have been called from all over the world, to a high level of sanctity so that you may reveal the true identity of the errors and promote the Truth with your mouths that will be like two-edged swords and thus may spread the fragrance of Christ."

(Message of love from the Blessed Mother of Naju on November 24, 1994)

Testimony by Fr. Fred (March 25th, 2012)

My gratitude also goes to Mama Julia. I believe that a healing event is being used by God for the conversion of many souls who look for salvation.

On 2007, I'd fell down on the stairs at the house of the diocese. Based on the medical examination, my hip was fractured. It was also recognized that I was suffering from prostate cancer... Moreover, it grew and caused a bone cancer which was very bad (advanced stage)... Osteoporosis from hip to knee made me helpless.

All of my activities got to be done on my bed. I've been through this situation of enduring for several months. I was sentenced to no hope of recovery. I went home because all of the medication was in vain. My age had had its day.

Who's heart is not broken, sad, and afraid when hearing the cancer sentenced and because the shadow of death is coming closer? There were so many litanies of disappointment and sadness raged in my human mind. In such situation, I had forgotten God.

One night, my sibling who accompanied me faithfully, was sleeping beside me, closed his eyes, his hands folded and his mouth moved silently. He prayed and prayed...

I GASPED AND REALIZED!!!

"He, who is a lay, who takes pain for me, is still able to pray. Why can't I? Why did I forget God? I have to change!!!"

Perhaps it was the first point of my new change and conversion. At that time I was looking for a rosary to pray. I asked and looked for a "bracelet rosary" which was given to me by Mama Julia when I visited Naju, Korea during the Holy Week in April 2006.

However, I truly realized that this rosary became one of helpful means for me to be closer to God through Mother Mary, I always hold the beads of Naju's bracelet rosary in my hand.

And this habit continued on and on until the day of medical prediction of how long I could live passed. It had been predicted that I would live for 3 months, based on how I could sit, stand up, walk, etc.

Fr. Fred (right) holding Julia's hand tightly while she was receiving a message of love from Jesus (Good Friday on April 14, 2006)

Even the doctor who had sentenced that I was hopeless before clarified with an astonishing statement, it was totally solid. His statement was very shocking and remarkable, A MIRACLE.

From this experience, I want to convey and state my deepest gratefulness to God, especially for the mediation of Mother Mary who listened to my prayer for recovery. My gratitude also goes to Mama Julia. I believe that a healing event is being used by God for the conversion of many souls who look for salvation. And through the intermediation by Mother Mary in Naju. God bless you. Amen.

"The pains of wearing the crown of thorns instead of the royal crown, being scourged, and being crucified because of the sins of the specially-called clergy, religious and children are greater than the pains of the suffering and dying on the Cross two thousand years ago, but My burning thirst is being well quenched by a little soul like you who participates in My extreme sufferings for the conversion and salvation of the children in the world."

Testimonies (2011 ~ 2012)

The healing is a powerful, life-changing grace for which I am most grateful !

My name is Steve Carty. I am Irish, now living in the USA. I did not seek prayers for my physical or psychological ailments. However, I did desire prayers for the healing of my soul(that has been twisted, deformed, scarred, and stained from my sinful past).

I met Julia Kim briefly at 06:25am on Sunday morning. After meeting Julia, being hugged by her and greeted in love, I was getting ready to move along when Julia suddenly stretched out both her hands and placed them on my knees. I was so overwhelmed.

By Monday morning, I was confident in faith, that I had indeed been miraculously healed, not just of my knees, but my whole skeletal system. I noticed I could now move my neck freely from side to side without pains.

Again, no pain from my upper and lower back. My hips, ankles, shoulders and arms all seemed to be moving freely without discomfort. I could bend, walk, and run without any problem. My balance was restored so I no longer needed my cane to lean heavily on or to keep me from falling over. I WAS HEALED!!! The healing is a powerful, life-changing grace for which I am most grateful. Amen.

I will continue to work for Naju !

I will continue to work for Naju. I believe that the Blessed Mother is truly working in Naju and comes to Mrs. Julia Kim. Naju is the synthesis of all of the Marian shrines. As there have been a number of Eucharistic miracles in Naju and the Vatican, Naju draws us most powerfully to "the Body of the Lord" (in the Eucharist). I pray that the Blessed Mother of Naju will be officially approved soon. She said, "My Immaculate Heart will surely triumph." We are happy to see your firm faith and the transcendent love of Julia. I will remember you and pray for you after I return to Austria.

Naju is truly the best shrine !

I have made pilgrimages to many of the famous shrines in Europe which have spectacular histories. However, when I came to Naju and experienced many things here, I realized that Naju is truly the best shrine. The vibrant actions of the Holy Spirit that I experienced in Naju could not be experienced at any other shrine. It was not just me who received this grace; all of the pilgrims from Germany experienced the same.

The Mary's Ark of Salvation Overseas Prayer Groups

From September 4, 2009, the Mary's Ark of Salvation Overseas Prayer Groups were established in different countries of the world, forming a network of prayer groups participated by the children of God who love the Blessed Mother of Naju. Two hundred and fifty members of the prayer groups in 12 countries gather on First Saturday in every month and pray for the same intentions and following the same format. They meditate together on the messages from the Lord and the Blessed Mother Who are alive in Their Love; listen to the recorded testimonies by Julia who is a victim soul who suffers for the sake of others; and diligently make little efforts to practice love.

The Love of Our Lady of Naju is spreading even to Argentina - the home country of our new Holy Father, Francis -

The Mass of consecrating the newly-built hall called "Our Mother of Naju"

John and Johanna of Korea immigrated to Argentina and are fervently spreading the information about Our Lady of Naju. After their arrival in Argentina, they saw many boys and girls leading a life of no hope for the future. A few years later they established "The School of Love", where they have been teaching and caring for the boys and girls at no charge to them for the past 20 years. "Our students are learning the Five Spiritualities of Naju from us and all of them are becoming more good-natured persons by experiencing the true Love of Our lady of Naju." John and Johanna said on Sept. 2, 2012.
