SIGNS FROM HEAVEN CONTINUE IN NAJU, KOREA

For the triumph of the Immaculate Heart of Mary

The Blessed Mother's Message in Naju, Korea on March 3, 2006

The Blessed Mother exuding fragrant oil through her statue in Naju (Oct 2, 2005)

My beloved children!

My Son Jesus can take the pains away from my daughter whom I love so intensely in one moment and let her stand up, but He has allowed her sufferings because a soul is needed who will offer up such enormous sacrifices for the conversion of the children in the world.

In this critical time of separating good grains and weeds, God is not uprooting the weeds but is waiting lest it should damage the precious good grains. But another reason is that the burning love in my Immaculate Heart continues to wait for the sinners to repent and return and does not let go of the string of hope until the last moment for the purpose of converting and leading to Heaven those who are misusing their free will and are going against God.

As my most beloved daughter knows well about my such intention and is always graciously offering up the pains of double deaths for the greatest glory of God and for the conversion of even the most wicked sinners, saying that suffering these pains are happy joys, I desire you also to unite with her, fulfill the missions entrusted to you, and inherit the tree of eternal life in Heaven on the last day.

The reason for and significance of Julia Kim's sufferings

Our Lord atoned for all human sins more than sufficiently by suffering pains and dying on the Cross. Nobody else can replace this role of Our Lord as the Savior of the human race. Jesus Christ is the only Savior for us, who can fully satisfy the divine justice that has been offended by our sins and demands reparation. At the same time, Our Lord wills that His followers participate in His work of human redemption with their own sacrifices, sufferings, and other works of charity, and thus help His graces flow more abundantly to numerous sinners so that His work of human salvation may bear more fruit and become completed.

With His compassion and mercy God sees our prayers and penances and bestows overflowing graces upon many people for their repentance, despite our unworthiness.

Bleeding continued for a while after the devotion of the Stations of the Cross was finished. There also were many tiny blood stains on Julia's forehead as if sprayed with a sprayer. April 6, 2007, Good Friday

In our modern age, there is a strong tendency for people to think everything in the context of their own goals, desires, and preferences instead of doing God's Will and seeking His glory. Because of this, their perception of the concept of "sin" has become diluted and blurred. When we ourselves stand in the center of our value judgment, we are going to become less sensitive to the concept of "sin", which is an offense against God, and less eager to avoid it and more sensitive to what we ourselves want. Instead of seeing evil in the sins we commit against God, we may see evil in whatever prevents us from satisfying our own wishes.

The true fact is, however, that sin, that is, an offense against God Who is the source of all truths, justice, goodness, and love, is the greatest possible evil and misfortune that can occur in human lives. Losing one's health, failing in business, and losing wealth and honor certainly are misfortunes, but committing sins by offending our Creator, damaging peace, good will and respect with our neighbors, and becoming unable to achieve eternal life is undoubtedly the greatest evil that can befall us.

Animals cannot commit sins, as they do not have free will, but humans were given free will and can willingly choose to serve God or choose not to serve Him. The whole Christian Faith is focused on how we can be cleansed of the original sin and our own actual sins and be sanctified by living in conformity with God's Will.

The lives of all the Saints in the entire Church history have also been focused on the same objective. Our Lord also instituted the Seven Sacraments in the Church for the purpose of cleansing us from sins and giving us the graces we need. It is also the priests' duty to sternly warn people against the evils of the world, prod them to repent of their sins and do penance, and encourage them to strive to advance in virtues, especially charity, and, thus, sanctify themselves with the help of God's graces.

In order to save humans from the misery of their sins, which are their greatest misfortunes, God the Son became incarnate and suffered death, thus, atoning for all human sins and reconciling the human race with God. By embracing this fact with faith, repenting of our sins, and being baptized, we can start the journey of salvation as members of the Church, which is the Mystical Body of Christ.

On the other hand, according to the Protestant reformist thinking, salvation can be attained simply by professing our faith in Jesus Christ as our Savior, and no further human efforts can contribute to our salvation, even though a virtuous life and avoidance of sins are encouraged as fruits of the faith. Many Protestants pray a lot, do charitable works, and even fast frequently, but none of these are believed to make any difference regarding whether we are saved or not. What is missing in that thinking is the truth that a positive response on our part to the graces from the Lord is necessary for our salvation as long as we live on earth. We are called to work out one's salvation with the help of God's graces, which means "our sanctification" and is a lifetime task. Without understanding this truth, it will be difficult to appreciate this concept of "our participation in the Lord's sufferings".

Actually, even many Catholics nowadays do not seem to understand the significance of the doctrine of "our participation in the Lord's redemptive suffering", and, thereby, our becoming little helpers for the Lord.

This is a sad consequence of the widespread propagation of the Protestant ideas even among many Catholics. A correct understanding of the authentic Catholic teachings has so weakened in our age.

Concerning how we can achieve salvation, Our Lord said: "Not everyone who says to me, 'Lord, Lord,' will enter the kingdom of heaven, but only the one who does the will of my Father in heaven" (Matthew 7:21) and

"If anyone wishes to come after me, he must deny himself and take up his cross daily and follow me" (Luke 9:23).

St. Paul the Apostle said: "With fear and trembling work out your salvation" (Phil. 2:12) and

"Now I rejoice in my sufferings for your sake, and in my flesh I am filling up what is lacking in the afflictions of Christ on behalf of his body, which is the church" (Col. 1:24).

Our Lord is saying that professing the faith alone is not enough to attain salvation and that we should live a life of doing the Will of God the Father and following the Lord, carrying our own cross every day. To this, some may protest, “You mean Our Lord’s sufferings and death were insufficient for our salvation? Can’t we just accept the fact of His Passion and thank Him for that?”

However, the question here is not regarding the sufficiency of the Lord’s sufferings for atoning for all human sins. In 1343, Pope Clement VI said that even the tiniest drop of the Lord’s blood would be more than enough to cleanse all the sins of the human race. This is because Our Lord is fully human and fully divine as God the Son, and, therefore, even his smallest suffering has an infinite value in atoning for human sins. Despite this infinite merit of the Lord’s sufferings, however, we humans still have our free will and thus can willingly choose to accept the saving graces from the Lord or choose to resist and reject them. This is true not just at any particular moment but throughout our lives on earth. Because we have this free will, we need to use it properly and manage our thoughts, words, and actions accordingly every day and at every moment, so that we may always remain in the truth, justice, and love of the Lord. Conversely, by misusing our free will, we can go against the Lord’s Will with our thoughts, words, and actions and fall off from the way of salvation. St. Paul the Apostle said, “Whoever thinks he is standing secure should take care not to fall (1 Corinthians 10:12).

Actually, because of the misuse of their free will by so many people, rebellions against God and His Commandments are rampant all over the world. Also, even if one becomes a member of the Church, it does not automatically mean that he will continue to be faithful to the Lord’s Will and help His work of human salvation. Even if one has the faith, works may not follow unless the free will cooperates.

Our Lord entrusted the task of making the saving graces known and healing the sick souls and sanctifying them to the Church. As members of the Church, we all have this mission from the Lord, Who is the Founder and Head of the Church. Of course, He did not tell us to do it with our own power only. The Lord said, “Without me, you can do nothing” (John 15:5). We can bear good fruit only by remaining in union with the Lord, by receiving His graces, and by relying on the power of the Holy Spirit. When St. Paul the Apostle said that in his flesh he was filling up what was lacking in the afflictions of Christ on behalf of His Church, he meant that, by participating in the Lord’s sufferings, he was making a contribution to the sanctification of the members of the Church - in other words, he was helping the body (that is, the members) of the Church achieve what had already been achieved in the Head, relying on the graces from the Head, which is Christ Himself. As this same work has been entrusted to every member of the Church, we need to offer up sacrifices, reparations, self-denials, and prayers in our daily lives, thus contributing to the growth and sanctification of the Church and the evangelization of the whole human race. By doing this all of us can become little helpers for the Savior, that is, little co-redeemers. That we can become co-redeemers for Christ is not because His merit is lacking but because, with His goodness and generosity, He wills that we freely and lovingly participate in His work, making little but real contributions to the accomplishment of His plan, which will increase His glory.

In the Protestant thinking, human salvation is dependent solely on the merits of Our Lord’s suffering and shedding His Blood, which are of course irreplaceable by anyone else’s, but this thinking leaves no room for our cooperation. Martin Luther himself was pessimistic about humans’ free will, as he believed that human nature was irreparably corrupt. Regarding this subject, the Church teaches as follows:

“God is the sovereign master of his plan. But to carry it out he also makes use of his creatures’ cooperation. This use is not a sign of weakness, but rather a token of almighty God’s greatness and goodness. For God grants his creatures not only their existence, but also the dignity of acting on their own, of being causes and principles for each other, and thus of cooperating in the accomplishment of his plan” (Catechism of the Catholic Church #306).

Throughout the past two thousand years of Church history, countless Christians were martyred in defense of the Christian Faith. In Korea also, between 1784, when Seung-Hoon Lee, a Confucian scholar visiting China, was baptized with the baptismal name of Peter, and the end of the 19th Century, about 20,000 Catholics were martyred. One hundred and three of them have been raised to Sainthood so far. These martyrdoms were ultimate sacrifices through participation in Christ’s Passion as well as the strongest possible testimonies that humans can give to the Lord and His messages. It probably is because of these numerous sacrifices that God is bestowing special graces upon Korea, by means of special messages and miraculous signs of unprecedented intensity and depth in Naju. Furthermore, probably because of Julia’s ceaseless prayers and extreme sufferings, God continues to send down the graces of conversion despite the persistent rejection by many people.

The Blessed Mother :

“What is the Last Supper? It is a feast of love and sharing. In order to give the totality of my love, which is so high, deep and wide, to my beloved Pope, Cardinals, Bishops, priests, religious and all my children in the world together with my Son Jesus, I am squeezing all of myself and giving you fragrance and oil.

The fragrance and oil that I give to all are gifts from God. They represent my presence, love and friendship for you.” (April 8, 1993)

Fragrant oil that Our Lord and Our Lady exuded in Naju on Holy Thursday in 2007

During the Triduum, the Lord mercifully revealed with many signs to all the domestic and foreign pilgrims from the United States, Indonesia, the Philippines, Germany and elsewhere that He was with them with His great love.

On Holy Thursday, the Lord sent down thick fragrant oil, which represents the presence, love, and friendship of the Lord and the Blessed Mother, on the area where little stones stained with the Lord's Precious Blood are preserved. Also, when Julia touched the foot of Jesus on the Crucifix at Mt. Calvary, a large quantity of thick fragrant oil exuded and flowed down to her hand.

On Good Friday, from 3 p.m., fresh blood began exuding from Julia's forehead, as she was suffering the pains of the crown of thorns and scourging.

Fr. Donald Lasap from San Francisco, the United States, and Fr. Herman Ando from Indonesia witnessed this bleeding. As the two priests were writing down their testimonies, more blood came out of Julia's forehead. When the pilgrims finished the Stations of the Cross and knelt before the Crucifix at Mt. Calvary, Julia saw that the Lord's Precious Blood was coming down on all the pilgrims in the form of a light misty rain.

On Holy Saturday, the two priests from the U.S.A. and Indonesia, Julia, and many other Korean and foreign pilgrims prayed the rosary together, holding candlelights and walking on the Way of the Cross. When they were praying the Third Glorious Mystery, Jesus sent down a powerful light of the Holy Spirit from the Crucifix at Mt. Calvary upon all the pilgrims. The light was so strong that the Crucifix was shaking.

GOOD FRIDAY 2007

Julia suffered the pains of the crown of thorns on April 6, 2007

Julia began suffering the pains of the crown of thorns and bleeding from the top of her forehead at about 3 p.m. on Good Friday. Moreover she suffered the pains of scourging which Jesus had suffered. As more blood streamed down from her forehead, Julia received some of the blood in her hand.

On April 6, 2007, Good Friday, at about 3 p.m., as the pilgrims were beginning the Stations of the Cross on the Blessed Mother' Mountain in Naju, Julia began suffering the pains of the crown of thorns and bleeding from the top of her forehead.

Despite her pains and weakness, Julia did the Stations of the Cross barefoot together with many other pilgrims.

Julia fell at the Ninth Station because of the pains of scourging.

While Julia and other pilgrims were doing the Stations of the Cross on the Blessed Mother's Mountain in Naju, she suffered the extreme pains of the Crown of Thorns, and blood streamed down from the top of Julia's forehead and stained her clothes. There also appeared a scourging mark on her ear.

Julia received some of the blood in her hand.

After finishing the Stations of the Cross, the pilgrims knelt and prayed before the Crucifix on Mt. Calvary. Tiny drops of the Lord's Precious Blood came down like a light drizzle. →

The Testimony of Fr. Donald Lasap

Some 20 years ago, someone brought a picture of a weeping statue of the Blessed Mother of Na Ju to our diocese of Myitkyina, Kachin State, Burma. I saw it for the first time and I was very much impressed.

I was told about the Na Ju miracles by some people in Singapore in the year 2000 when I went there for a retreat. Since then I have been eager to visit Na Ju but somehow I never had a chance to do that.

In February, 2007 a group of pilgrims from San Francisco, California, USA invited me to go to Na Ju during the Holy Week.

The following are some of the incredible things I witnessed together with many pilgrims.

* On Good Friday, April 6, 2007 at 3:00 pm as we (all the pilgrims) were getting ready for the way of the cross, Julia Kim began to receive the crown of thorns on her head. We saw the blood streaming down from her head.

* Fr. Herman Ando and I accompanied Julia along the way of the cross. Julia fell down three times.

* After the 15th Station, we continued to pray in front of the big Crucifix and at a certain point Julia wiped the feet of Jesus on the Crucifix and her palm became wet with fragrant oil. She also asked us (Fr. Herman and myself) to do the same. We followed her direction and found our palms were wet with the same fragrant oil.

* After the way of the cross and the rosary, we began to see the blood flowing down again from Julia's forehead.

* On Holy Saturday evening I was asked by some of the elders to welcome the miraculous statue of the Blessed Mother Mary brought by Julia. As soon as the car door was opened all of us could smell a very strong fragrance of roses. All the pilgrims that were there witnessed the fragrant oil oozing out from the statue of the Blessed Mother.

* After our evening rosary that was before the vigil Mass, some of us, Fr. Herman, myself, some photographers and some of the elders were gathering in a room behind the chapel, chatting with Julia when all of a sudden we found some marks of blood on our stoles. On the right side of my white stole we saw a thick drop of fresh blood and then found another mark of blood on my stole and also two marks of blood appeared on the stole of Fr. Herman.

During my stay in Na Ju I observed Julia carefully. I noticed great humility, deep prayer life, a lot of fasting by her and her great love for everyone there. I also observed her complete surrender to the will of God.

I am very much convinced that the Holy Spirit is speaking to the World through her. The Holy Spirit gives her the necessary graces to endure her various kinds of sufferings.

I also witnessed the inner transformations in the lives of so many people who were there. Many pilgrims shared with me how they used to live their lives and now they say that their lives are on the right path again because of the Na Ju messages and signs.

I myself feel very much remorse for my many failures especially in my prayer life.....for not doing what I should have and I could have.

Holy week in Na Ju was a grace-filled experience for all of us.

After returning home one of my sisters kept asking me - What happened to you? You are different than before.

Yes I am changed. I feel that I am being renewed. Thanks be to God and Mother Mary of Na Ju.

Two priests from the U.S.A. and Indonesia witnessed blood streaming down from the top of Julia's head.

On April 6, 2007, at about 6 p.m. while the priests were writing down their testimonies after having witnessed Julia's suffering the pains from the crown of thorns and her bleeding, more blood suddenly streamed down on Julia's forehead. The priests and several volunteer helpers witnessed this surprising scene.

Also, even though not visible in the photograph, Julia suffered the pains of scourging which Jesus had suffered, and, because of this, exuded sweat and thick, sticky water, which made it difficult for her to open her eyes.

OUR LORD'S MESSAGE VIA JULIA KIM ON April 7, 2007 – Vigil of Easter Sunday :

On this Easter Vigil, I was suffering indescribably severe pains in my body, heavily weighed down by the cruel scourging all over and the crown of thorns on Good Friday, but I offered up these pains and devoted myself to prayer so that all the pilgrims might experience the joy of the Resurrection. Together with the pilgrims, I prayed the Glorious Mysteries of the Holy Rosary walking on the Way of the Cross in order to celebrate the Vigil of Our Lord's glorious victory gained by defeating death and resurrecting and to sound the prelude to the triumph of the Blessed Mother's Immaculate Heart. While we were praying the Third Glorious Mystery, Jesus on the Cross at Mt. Calvary radiated the light of the Holy Spirit on all of the pilgrims, which was so powerful that the Crucifix shook forcefully, and began speaking.

JESUS:

My beloved little soul! I intend to save all by sending down the Holy Spirit as requested in your prayers filled with the love with which you have meditated on the Mystery of Salvation earned through the inestimable pains on the Cross and have participated in My Passion so that the clergy may be sanctified and even the most wicked sinners, whose very human nature has been dried up, may receive the grace of repentance.

My beloved children who have been called by Me and My Mother, responded with Amen to that call, and rushed (to Us)! How can I not grant your prayers, as you offer up your prayers with utmost devotion like this? I feel much pain in My Heart, as, even at this moment, the clergy, the religious, and numerous children are celebrating the feast in commemoration of My Resurrection, but are only doing so perfunctorily. However, I will collect all the prayers that you graciously offer up with utmost devotion, accompanied with your sacrifices and reparations, present them before God's justice that demands expiation, and thereby turn the chastisement that is to come down on this world into a cup of blessing.

My beloved children! You cannot resurrect unless you die first, can you? You will surely be saved with the new Resurrection, if you genuinely follow the Will of Me and My Mother Who have been screaming until Our throats become torn even showing numerous signs, in the truth that you can resurrect only when you die first regardless of how painful your life may be in this age when the good heads of grain are being separated from the empty ones.

Children! When you respond with Amen to My and My Mother's call and put into practice the messages of love that have been given (to you) through My little soul, you will all be protected and looked after in whatever circumstances you may be and you will be rescued even from imminent crises. Therefore, do not ever be worried or fearful. Not even one soul among the children who have been called, have responded with Amen, and are following Me and My Mother will be abandoned like orphans.

No matter what time of ordeal you are confronted with, I will strengthen and protect you with the love of the Holy Spirit which I sent down to you today. So genuinely and totally offer up your thoughts, minds, and souls so that you may experience a new Resurrection. I send down boundless blessings on all of you.

GOOD FRIDAY 2006

After the Stations of the Cross, they went down to Calvary Hill. When Julia began praying before the Crucifix, she saw another vision : “The side of Jesus on the Cross opened and His Blood and water poured down to the last drop upon all who were present. At that moment, I heard Jesus’ voice, which sounded anxious but kind.”

Bleeding from her side

After the Stations of the Cross, a dermatologist from Germany examined the wounds on Julia’s body, and then, wiped away the blood on her face. But about three hours later, she resumed suffering the pains of the Crown of Thorns along with other pains and blood flowed again from her forehead.

Julia received wounds on the forehead, both hands, side, and both feet, and also scourge marks on her arms, legs, and back, corresponding to the wounds and pains that Our Lord suffered. These miraculous signs were accompanied by extreme pains in reparation for the sins in the world and for the conversion of sinners.

OUR LORD'S MESSAGE VIA JULIA KIM ON GOOD FRIDAY 2006

At about 3 a.m. on Good Friday, I began praying before the altar of repose at the place on the Blessed Mother's Mountain where the Lord's Precious Blood had descended on August 15, 2002 and participating in several kinds of extreme pains that the Lord and the Blessed Mother were suffering.

In the afternoon, from about 2:30, I suffered severe pains of the Seven Wounds of Jesus. At about 2:40, blood exuded from my forehead, flowed down, and dripped down from the tip of my nose.

At about 3 p.m., I returned to the altar of repose supported by others meditating on the Lord's Passion, before beginning the Stations of the Cross. There already were a monsignor, a priest, and more than 30 other pilgrims from the Philippines, a priest and more than 80 other pilgrims from Indonesia, about fifteen pilgrims from the United States, several pilgrims from Germany, Australia, Japan, and Hong Kong, and many Korean pilgrims, gathered with the intention of observing the Triduum together with the Blessed Mother of Naju.

While I was offering up the opening prayers before the altar of repose together with the pilgrims, I suddenly screamed loudly in spite of myself and collapsed from the pains of being scourged all over my body and being nailed to the cross.

While doing the Stations of the Cross, I felt very cold and fell several times because of merciless scourging. When I reached the Twelfth Station, I saw a vision: As soon as Jesus breathed His last, the black curtain was removed, the gate of Heaven opened, and God revealed the image of a white Sacred Host and poured down clear and bright light like the rays of the sun upon all the people present there, healing their souls and bodies.

After the Stations of the Cross, we went down to Calvary Hill. When I began praying before the Crucifix, I saw another vision: The side of Jesus on the Cross opened and His Blood and water poured down to the last drop upon all who were present. At that moment, I heard Jesus' voice, which sounded anxious but kind.

JESUS:

Oh, My beloved little soul who has been called with extreme love! The pains of wearing the crown of thorns instead of the royal crown, being scourged, and being crucified because of the sins of the specially-called clergy, religious and children are greater than the pains of the suffering and dying on the Cross two thousand years ago, but My burning thirst is being well quenched by a little soul like you who participates in My extreme sufferings for the conversion and salvation of the children in the world who have lost their sense of direction and have become like beasts with human faces.

As so many of My children whom I have specially called and installed (as My workers) say that they love Me and My Mother but indulge themselves in their complicated and disorderly thoughts and go against God, I feel painful to the extent of not even being able to look at them. Now, even after two thousand years have passed since My Crucifixion, I am still nailed to the Cross day after day like this and am shedding Blood and water to the last drop for the conversion of sinners, am I not?

However, because there is a little soul like you who willingly and graciously participates in My sufferings for saving the whole world through the victory of My mercy and love, I and My Mother are comforted, and the cup of God the Father's just anger is being delayed.

How can I not love you after seeing your pains of reparation accompanied by your gracious sacrifices which you willingly offer up so that the numerous children of the world may repent and possess the tree of eternal life, saying that your pains are “happy pains that bring hope”?

(Julia: I shouted in my heart: “I am a sinner who is so unworthy, unqualified, and lowly. I am an unqualified person who cannot do anything. I am truly unworthy.”)

JESUS:

My darling little baby whom I love! Through the pains you suffer while acknowledging that you are an unworthy, unqualified, and lowly sinner, even those souls who are rushing toward hell will return to the bosom of the Holy Catholic Church. As I and My Mother dwell in your childlike heart with which you acknowledge that you are a sinner who is always unworthy and lowly, do not worry or hesitate but resolutely and courageously spread (the messages) to the children in the world with the invincible weapon* that I gave you so that they may achieve victory over the cunning devil of division and ascend to Heaven.

Then, through the pains of double deaths that you suffer while participating in My pains, the numerous souls who had been walking on the road to hell, thrusting their fingers at others' faces with misguided theories and reasoning, will sincerely repent, and the number of the souls who turn around and say: “It has been my fault” will increase. What else could this be than the happy pains that bring hope as you scream? Isn't that true?

Dear clergy and all the children in the world who have responded to My call with Amen! Today I wish to give the totality of My Love to all of you to heal your arid souls and bodies as well as your sick families so that they may become revitalized. I have already completely laid down Myself by shedding Blood even for the most wicked sinners who indulge themselves in doing evil and reject Me and My Mother. What would I not lay down for you who seek Me?

The light of My Love with which I laid down My entire Body for all the children in the world will shine not only on you but also on those people whom you specially pray for.

Therefore, I desire that you, who have been called, now distance yourselves from the things of the world, always remember My Cross which is for your salvation, seek the highest good and love, take all the souls who have become contaminated with sins on board Mary's Ark of Salvation which My Mother has prepared, and make sure that they never get off.

I will soon go to each of you together with My Mother, bringing rewards and fire to separate good heads of grain from weeds and reward each according to his works. I desire that at least you, who are supposed to know Me and My Mother, do your best by perpetuating the Paschal Mysteries of the Last Supper and Resurrection in reparation for the most horrible sins of blasphemy and the sins of going against God the Father's solemn dignity, so that all may be saved.

All My dear children in the world! Even when a dangerous crisis befalls you and you are unable to do anything about it because of its suddenness while working to make known the highest and purest love of Me and My Mother, I and My Mother will guard and protect you, sustain you so that you may never give up despite difficulties, and always be with you as your companions even if any natural disasters visit you, and you will escape from the disaster of the flames of justice.

Therefore, through My Mother who is the shortcut in coming to Me, have total trust in Me, your Redeemer and Judge of justice, and become lowlier and littler souls. And take the lead and spread (the messages) valiantly to save the world of misery which is drifting toward its destruction.

Even today I intend to transfuse to you My Blood which I shed on the Cross like this in order to thoroughly wash away your dirty stains. I want all of you to love one another and take the lead in saving the world with the transcendence of My love with which I shed Blood from the Cross because I love even the most wicked sinners.

I desire that at least you, whom I have chosen, empty again and again your minds which have become filled with riches and thus become humble and little souls, and unite with My highest and purest love with which I want to save all the children with the immeasurable merits of the sufferings on the Cross and the love in My Sacred Heart. Thus, accept totally in your hearts My Mother's boundless love with which she loves you so dearly and become one with Her Heart. May the infinite blessing, love and peace be always with you who came here seeking Me and My Mother!

When Jesus finished speaking, he disappeared. I could only see His image on the Crucifix. Also, my pains had been so severe to the extent of needing a wheelchair, but the pains were gone after I received the message and I felt my body as light as a bird's feather.

[Translator's note: *Julia explains that "the invincible weapon" the Lord mentions here refers to the combined love of the Sacred Heart of Jesus and the Immaculate Heart of Mary, with which we can love everyone regardless of his condition. This expression had also been used in several earlier messages from the Lord and the Blessed Mother in Naju.

About three hours later, Julia resumed suffering pains while she was meditating and praying before the Crucifix.]

Julia Kim of Naju brings the Blessed Mother's Messages to the Bali and Ruteng Dioceses in Indonesia (March 22 - 29, 2007)

Julia Kim and her volunteer helpers visited Indonesia for a week from March 22 to 29, 2007 at the invitation of the Indonesian Bishops. A total of more than 200,000 people in the Ruteng Diocese gathered to see and hear her. Many healings occurred during the healing Mass. Julia's visit was a powerful encouragement to the Indonesian Catholics, who are a minority in a country of almost 250 million people, most of whom are Islam.

JESUS:

A year-end prayer meeting was held on the Blessed Mother's Mountain from 8 p.m. on December 31, 2006. At 0 a.m. on the first day of 2007, all the pilgrims gathered before the area where the little stones stained with the Lord's Precious Blood are preserved and started a campfire with their hearts filled with hopes for the new year. Watching the flames of fire going up, the participants became of one mind and one heart and shouted: "For the Triumph of the Immaculate Heart of the Blessed Mother!"

We earnestly prayed that all our bad habits and old stains from the world would be consumed completely by the flames of the Holy Spirit so that we might begin a new life of the Resurrection. We prayed the rosary devotedly, circling around the area where the little stones stained with the Lord's Precious Blood are preserved and the campfire, making the resolution for the new year that we would not get off Mary's Ark of Salvation or look back but faithfully put into practice the messages of love from the Lord and the Blessed Mother and praying that the Blessed Mother of Naju would be officially approved in the new year so that all the children in the world might be saved.

While we were praying, a huge ring suddenly and clearly appeared around the moon as if indicating a blessing for all of us. Also at that moment, a brilliant light shone from the direction of the image of Jesus on the Crucifix on Mt. Calvary. When I looked, Jesus appeared wearing a white robe and an ivory-color mantle and looking so gentle and smiling. He blessed us all. The Blessed Mother also appeared as Our Lady of Naju, wearing a white dress and a blue mantle and looking extremely beautiful. She was on the right side of Jesus, smiling and waving her hand.

While I was praying five decades of the rosary with a priest in the area where the little stones stained with the Lord's Precious Blood are preserved, I heard the kind voice of Jesus.

"My extremely beloved children!

Thank you. At this hour when even the numerous souls who have been called are being disrespectful because of their selfishness and are eating, drinking, and enjoying pleasure at the year-end parties or the bidding the old year out and the new year in parties in this spiritually-dark world, you are graciously offering up not only the cold on this night ending one year and beginning a new year but also everything in your lives and are making a new resolution. My Sacred Heart and

My Mother's Immaculate Heart suffer extreme pains for the conversion of sinners, but are comforted by your prayers combined with your gracious offering-up that is interspersed with sacrifices and penances.

I know well how fervently you are spreading the messages of love from Me and My Mother in order to follow Me and My Mother in this dangerous age infected with errors, graciously offering up the difficulties, pains, tiredness, sometimes many kinds of insults and humiliations, and unbearable shames. Always remembering that all your merits of bleeding sacrifices will never become vain but turn into treasures and pile up high before My throne in Heaven, do not worry or fear but go forward more valiantly.

As I will accompany and protect you who have been called through My little soul who always works for Me together with My Mother, do not weigh or judge even a trivial thing with human thoughts but offer up everything in your life by turning it into a prayer. If you make efforts to walk the way of perfection and saintly virtues by turning everything in your lives into a prayer at every moment as I taught through My little soul chosen by Me, I will work within you together with My Mother even if you are unworthy and imperfect and let you enjoy eternal happiness in the next world.

My beloved babies! When you make known the burning Love in My Sacred Heart and My Mother's Immaculate Heart, you will experience pains, but always remember that if you achieve unity among you and follow Me, you will eternally rejoice by gaining Me even if you lose everything in this world. Also, remember that, as My Mother, who is endlessly humble, was chosen as My Helper, all of you have also been chosen as My Mother's helpers through My little soul who joyfully and most devotedly obeys (Me and My Mother). Do not forget that, if you display the power of love and spread (the messages) valiantly and heroically with total loyalty, Heaven will surely be yours.

My beloved children who have been called and responded with Amen! It is not too late yet. Make a new start now. On this day for commemorating the amazing miracle of the Eucharist with My most Precious Blood which I personally sent down so that it might become a starting engine for refreshing your minds, I bless you with My infinite Love, with which I laid down My whole Body together with My loving Mother hoping that your souls and bodies would be healed, by sending down the water of mercy and the fragrant oil like a drizzle even on those children who came here out of curiosity."

After the prayer meeting ended, the priest who prayed with the pilgrims dipped his finger in the fragrant oil and water of mercy on the acrylic dome covering the area where the little stones stained with the Lord's Precious Blood are preserved and showed it to the pilgrims and testified for confirmation. (The fragrant oil and water of mercy on the dome were visible to everyone.)

Message on February 3, 2007

On this First Saturday, many unexpected difficulties occurred from early in the morning, and I offered up all these pains for the spiritual and physical well-being of the Holy Father, the head of the Church, for all those who come to the Blessed Mother of Naju as pilgrims, and for the repentance of sinners. From about 8:30 p.m., I prayed the rosary with the pilgrims with a heart of utmost devotion, sacrifice and oblation, walking on the Way of the Cross. When we were praying the Third Sorrowful Mystery, we reached the area where the little stones stained with the Lord's Precious Blood are preserved, and I entered the area. While I was meditating on the mystery of the Lord wearing the crown of thorns, I saw the Lord before me, bleeding miserably on the Cross. I was so startled that I almost collapsed.

Then, because I could not see Jesus any longer, I looked up at the image of Jesus on the Crucifix at Mt. Calvary. Suddenly, I saw the Sacred Heart on the image of Jesus on the Crucifix opening and brilliant and colorful light radiating from the Sacred Heart and illuminating the bloodstained stones. Then, brilliant and colorful light poured out of the bloodstained stones and shone on all the pilgrims gathered on the Blessed Mother's Mountain. At that moment, the little bloodstained stones began moving and making sounds! The stones seemed to be dancing, filled with joy. While I was gazing upon this, I heard the loving and kind voice of the Lord.

JESUS:

"My extremely beloved little soul who graciously offers up any pains (that befall you)! The extreme pains that you offer up for the repentance of sinners will never be in vain. I will bestow overflowing graces upon the children who visit this place by virtue of your gracious oblations through the sacrifices, which you have been offering up joyfully, knowing well that more sufferings become required of you especially when the children whom you have offered up receive abundant graces or reach a new birth.

My extremely beloved children who have responded to My Mother's call with Amen! I am sending down the light of all My love and mercy for you, who are praying here, at My Mother's earnest request and also seeing the heart of My little soul, whom I prepared and chose, which is filled with sacrifices, love, and gracious oblations accompanied by extreme pains for reparation.

I and My Mother have been anxiously making earnest appeals to save all the children of this world, even manifesting the most sublime and purest love and unprecedented signs, but the messages of love given through My little soul remain unaccepted, and little pains like headaches, bruises, and scratches are not offered up but are only complained about. Meanwhile, you have responded to My Mother's call with Amen and are praying with your whole heart. What is there that I would not lay down for you?

My beloved children! Many children are seeking physical healing, but there is something more important than that. When you totally accept in your hearts My love with which I wish to save all the children with the inestimable merit of the sufferings on the Cross and the love that flames up in My Sacred Heart and the boundless love of My Mother who loves you so much, the names of all of you who came to visit Me and My Mother will be recorded in the Book of Life in the Heavenly Kingdom. Now, I send down boundless blessing on all of you gathered and are praying here where I and My Mother accompany you.”

After Jesus ended speaking, I saw a shadow of someone passing by on top of the dome in the area where the little stones stained with the Precious Blood are preserved and wondered if it was Jesus. I looked up, but could not see Him.

Message on March 3, 2007

On this First Saturday of March and the Lenten season, from about 8:40 p.m., I prayed the rosary with all my heart together with pilgrims walking on the Way of the Cross and, when we were praying the Second Sorrowful Mystery, I entered the area where the little stones stained with Our Lord’s Precious Blood are preserved.

When we reached the Third Sorrowful Mystery, meditating on the Lord suffering from wearing the Crown of Thorns, there was a bright light from the direction of the Crucifix on Mt. Calvary, and I looked. I saw a fire flaming up vigorously in the Sacred Heart of Jesus on the Crucifix. When we were praying the Glory Be ending the rosary, the light from the Sacred Heart of Jesus became stronger and burst out. I fell down on the ground by the power of the strong light. The light was also pouring down on all the pilgrims who were praying. When I fell, I hit something hard, but the Blessed Mother came closer to me as if flying and got hold of me, preventing me from getting hurt at all. When I got up and looked at Jesus on Mt. Calvary, He was alive and smiling. As I kept looking at Jesus with amazement, He began speaking lovingly and kindly.

JESUS:

My beloved little soul! I send down the light of love that flames up vigorously in My Sacred Heart upon you who makes efforts to graciously offer up the extreme death agony for the sanctification of the clergy and the repentance of sinners and also on all the children who are praying with you.

All my beloved children who gathered here responding with Amen to My Mother’s call! If there are some people whom you consider your enemies, forgive them while you are praying now. Then, the light of the most sublime and pure love that I have poured out for your sake will penetrate you, and you will be renewed.

At least you whom I have chosen should not ruin the work because you are fettered by laws but, arming yourselves with the messages of love that I and My Mother have given you and turning your lives into prayers, make your best efforts so that numerous souls may be freed from the road to hell and enjoy Heaven, become born again with love, and lower yourselves further so that you may become my humble little souls who do not forget to give thanks for the graces that you have received.

Dear children! When I cured ten lepers two thousand years ago, only one of them, a gentile from Samaria, came back to give praise to God. It is the same in this age. On how many of My beloved children have I, together with My Mother, bestowed the graces of repentance and healed them spiritually and physically even by showing numerous signs in Najju, Korea, which is My youngest child, through My humble little soul who has been called to a great role?

Even most of My little souls who have been called to Heaven cling to Me and My Mother begging eagerly as if clinging to a life buoy, but, once they receive the grace they have been asking for, they are grateful only briefly and then return to their miserable life joining forces with the devil of pride, frequently enter through the widely open gate of hell, and thus give the Hearts of My Mother and Me the pains of being torn apart into thousands and tens of thousands of pieces.

My extremely beloved children! The time has drawn near. As there is no more time to hesitate or procrastinate, make haste to help Me so that I may finish the work that I began. I want at least you, who know that those children who take care of many tasks, graciously offering up their numerous pains, are more loved and taken to Heaven in greater numbers than those who sit at the table and rule over others, to wake up in haste and take the lead courageously in saving this world contaminated with evil.

My beloved children who have been called! Because you have participated in suffering for My and My Mother’s sake receiving all kinds of persecution while I and My Mother have been undergoing all kinds of trials, so, as My Father has given Me royal authority, I will take you to Heaven and let you share love eating and drinking at My table.”

When Jesus finished speaking, He raised His right arm high and gave his blessing of My most sublime and pure love,” and, then, He returned to the appearance of His image on the Crucifix.

TESTIMONIES ON NAJU

Personal testimony to the happenings on the night of 19th October, 2005 while celebrating the 19th Anniversary of the shedding of tears of blood by our Blessed Mother Mary on the Blessed Mother's Mountain in Naju.

Msgr. Paul Chee, Sibul, Sarawak, Malaysia
(October 23, 2005)

It was the celebration of the 20th Anniversary of the shedding of tears by our Blessed Mother on June 30th, 2005 on the Blessed Mother's mountain that I witnessed and saw with my own eyes the miracle of the "dancing sun" of the Fatima for the second time and which I had read so much about it in books. I remembered it was about 3:15 p.m. that day when the overcast sky suddenly opened up. Two members of our pilgrimage group, Paul Lau and Joseph Song took video pictures of this "dancing sun". I wasn't prepared for the unexpected. What turned up after both films were being developed at home in Sibul were the divine mercy rays - white and red in colors "raining down" from the bright sun. In a way, my believing of the supernatural events happening in Naju was once again being affirmed!

This has led me to the totally unexpected pilgrimage trip to Naju again led by Peter Ting and Felicia Lim, this time for the celebration of the 19th Anniversary of the shedding of tears of blood by our Blessed Mother Mary which fell on October 19, 2005.

It was after the Holy Eucharist celebration that Archbishop Nicholas, Fr. Bosmans, Fr. Pham, Fr. Tito, Julia and myself with all people present went up the mountain just before 11:00 p.m. After the presentation of dances in praises and honor of our Lady and Jesus, at about 12:10 a.m. we began the recitation of the Holy Rosary along the route of the Stations of the Cross.

It was during the third decade of the Rosary when we arrived at the scene of the Calvary. I stared at "Jesus hanging on the cross". Jesus looked alive on the cross if my eyes did not deceive me! I was a step behind Julia with Archbishop Nicholas on her right side and Fr. Bosmans was beside me. Within split seconds, Julia, who was in front of me, was thrown backward as if by a force and fell flat on the ground.

I was momentarily stunned as I turned and looked down at her on the ground. Her aides rushed to her assistance and within less than a few minutes, Julia was on her feet again. We then continued the recitation of the Holy Rosary until we reached Julia's room inside the tent. It was then I came to know from Julia that Jesus has spewed his blood from his side at the scene of the Calvary! Julia's dress was covered with fresh blood of Jesus. So, too also was the Archbishop Nicholas' suit.

As I and other photographers were busily taking photo shots of Julia and the Archbishop, there was a commotion behind my back.

One photographer noticed the back of my windbreaker was also covered with the precious blood of Jesus. I was then asked to take off my windbreaker and I laid it on the flat surface to be photographed. There and then, I really saw some large drops of fresh blood, few streaks of fresh blood and many tiny droplets of fresh blood all over the back of my woolen windbreaker!

I felt awe-struck by this event and was wondering what this could mean. In the coming days, I must say that I like to meditate more deeply on the significance of this 'miraculous' event of my life.

This testimony, which I now attest, is the true happenings as I saw it happen on the Blessed Mother's mountain in Naju, South Korea on the night of the celebration of the 19th anniversary of the weeping of the tears of blood by our Blessed Mother which fell on 19th October, 2005.

NB: Later on, during the same night, two pilgrims, Helen and James from my group of Singaporeans and Malaysians personally approached me to tell me that they saw Jesus alive on the cross oozing streams of copious blood from his wounds that night at the scene of the Calvary.

After this happening, and for the remainder of the trip, I did not share with anyone my own same personal experiences as theirs. I really believed that my eyes have not deceived me as I just wore my newly made pair of glasses before this trip!

Sacred Host came down miraculously on the Blessed Mother's House on October 24, 2006.

On October 24, 2006, while the faithful were exchanging the sign of peace with each other at the 7 a.m. Mass, a Eucharist came down. Julia saw the streams of the Precious Blood from the Lord's Seven Wounds on the Crucifix merging into one stream and turning into a Eucharist and coming down with a powerful light. Jesus in the Eucharist gave a blessing upon all the volunteer helpers present at the Mass, saying, "Peace be with you always . . ." The Eucharist floated down above Julia's head and lightly landed before the ciborium on the altar. Julia and three others witnessed the descent of the Eucharist. The Eucharist had letters: "IHS" on it.

Sacred Host that came down on October 24, 2006.

The Sacred Host that had come down from heaven on April 16, 2005 exuded the Precious Blood on May 6 of the same year and another Sacred Host came down miraculously on the Blessed Mother's House on October 24, 2006.
